Hosting organisation

- The AWO Kita Bernstein is a small reality and offers a warm and inviting atmosphere that is tailored to the needs of children from 3 to 6 years old. The facility has spacious indoor and outdoor areas that offer space for play, fun and discovery. With bright, friendly rooms and a variety of play materials, the daycare is the perfect place for children to explore their world and learn.
- The AWO Kita Bernstein follows a holistic educational approach. The children are encouraged to develop their own personalities and to discover and promote their skills and talents. Through the playful handling of various topics and materials, the children are supported and encouraged in their development. The main goal is that the interests of the children are being supported by the educators and the volunteers.
- The AWO Kita Bernstein is open Monday to Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. A variety of activities are offered, including creative workshops, music and movement lessons, nature trips and much more. This ensures a varied everyday life that supports and promotes the children's development.
- Your tasks are supporting the educators in one group of children in their daily activities, supporting the kitchen (preparing, cleaning after breakfast and lunch), but as well realizing your own project with the children.

Livin' Culture

- You will be involved in an exciting international environment, with many more internationals.
- The coordinating organization, together with all european volunteers, organize throughout the year an intercultural series of events called "Livin'Culture". As an international volunteer, you will also be involved in the creation of the activities with the aim of exchanging several cultures and traditions and promoting inclusion and integration. You will have the chance to present your home country, spread more about your traditions, and planning some funny activities such as cooking, dancing, playing, partying and much more!

You wanna give a look to the previous events? check out the ESC volunteers Instagram and facebook profile!

Coordinating organisation

- The Kreisjugendwerk (KJW) of the AWO Karlsruhe-Stadt is the nonprofit children's and youth's department of the AWO (Arbeiterwohlfahrt). As an independent organization, the KJW organizes leisure activities for children and young people between the ages of 6 and 20, extracurricular education and workshops, as well as intercultural encounters and projects for young people and young adults between 15 and 27.
- Our work focuses on participation and personal development, and our activities are also deliberately offered to children and young people from socially disadvantaged backgrounds and to young people with a migration background. Besides coordinating the voluntary service, we are organizing a lot of camps and holidays for young people in Germany and abroad.

Summer Camps

- The KJW organizes different activities and summer camps for children and young people between the ages of 6 and 20 years. As a kindergarten volunteer you will have an opportunity to become a summer camp youth leader. Summer Camps will take place in and outside of Germany. One camp usually lasts one to two weeks. Camps are amazing chance to work and travel at the same time.
- A volunteer who desires to become summer camps leaders will be provided with the appropriate training. After completing all the necessary instructions you will get a youth leader certificate.

Activities and accomodation

- You will support the daily activities with the kids, as well as special activities, such as sports, role-playing, construction, and arts. Depending on your interests there's the possibility to make an own project/workshop, such as doing handicrafts, games, and other activities.
- You will also support the preparation of breakfast and lunch for the children and support the housekeeping activities. You will work 34 hours in the kita.
- Additionally, you will support the coordinating organization with intercultural activities, such as the Livin' Culture project.
- You have 24 holiday days. The kitas are closed some weeks in December and in August.
- You will be accommodated in a house close to the city with six more ESC volunteers. The volunteers share a kitchen, two bathrooms and a common room, but each of you will have a single room.
- Your working place is at 30 minutes by tram distance. You will receive a card for the public transport, so you can travel with the tram, train and bus for free all around the Germany!
- The closest tram stop is at five minutes from your house.

Are you...

-  creative and open-minded?
-  interested in working with children?
-  interested in anything you can show or share with others (music,sports, art...)?
-  a responsible person?

-  Do you have a small experience with children?
-  Do you already have some German language skills?

If yes, then you are a perfect candidate for this position.
